

Care and Repair of the Soul

with

Reverend Janet Newton

“It takes practice or calamity to let go of our ideal selves and become vulnerable in prayer... In prayer we learn to let go of the ideal version of ourselves and fully face the reality of who we are. It takes time for us to be able to confess ourselves as beautifully flawed. In the beginning we may only see our beauties or only see our flaws, neither of which is the whole truth of our existence.”

Rev. Janet

Closing Hymn Becoming by Mary Grigolia

verse 1: I am who I'm becoming; I am all I have done.

I am what I am dreaming; I've only just begun.

I am who I'm becoming; I am all I have done.

I am what I am dreaming; I've only just begun.

verse 2: You are who you're becoming; you are all you have done.
 You are what you are dreaming; you've only just begun.
 You are who you're becoming; you are all you have done.
 You are what you are dreaming; you've only just begun.

verse 3: We are who we're becoming; we are all we have done.
 We are what we are dreaming; we've only just begun.
 We are who we're becoming; we are all we have done.
 We are what we are dreaming; we've only just begun.
